LONDON, Dec. 22 .- The Daily Chronicle's correspondent telegraphs from Athens an interview with the Greek Prime Minister in which Mr. Skouloudis said: "We are at the most critical moment of our history. The future is black as or our history. The fluture is black as night, but the time has come when the truth should be known about Greece's attitude and Greece's policy. My coun-try has been maligned; her Government try has been mailgned; her Government has been attacked. Yet the fault is not ours. It is the four Power alliance, not we, who are responsible. If Greece is not fighting whole heartedly on the Ailies' side to-day it is because their states-men and diplomatists have failed in their duty toward their countries and toward Greece.

"The Allies have flouted and angered The Allies have flouted and angered Greece, instead of dealing with us frankly. If the Allies had come frankly to Greece and said, 'Come in with us. We want your aid. You may count on clearly defined recompenses at the end of the struggle.' Greece would not have hesitated for a single minute. Instead, England and France began by demanding sacrifices from Greece. They asked us to cooperate with the Allies in the Dardanelles. At the same time they asked us to relinquish Kavala and Seres to our bitterest foes and to give up our rich provinces won by Greek blood. blood.
